DECEMBER 2022

From Saved to Serving

Great Joy in 2022

We send you our greetings from over 200 Cambodian Christians attending our several Churches throughout South East Cambodia.

It has been a year of great work and service and our Christmas Service closing out the year was absolutely outstanding. We had ten specially prepared songs this Christmas from the youth, the young adults, the ladies, from brother and sister Van Li and Maria and from Savoeun as well as four songs for everyone. It was outstanding.

Thanks to your faithful donations and some special gifts we were able to put over 170 care packages with rice, dried noodles, and cookies into the hands of the poor as well as about 100 gifts of dry noodles and cookies for the children. Everyone was so thankful that you were all thinking of them. Eight of these were special packages for our elderly (over 60) members pictured below.

The Lord has blessed us with quite a few youth this year professing Jesus as their Savior and receiving believer's baptism. In the photo below, seven of these ten youth pictured below received Jesus as their Savior earlier this year and are faithfully serving their Savior.

We thank you all for your love, prayers and gifts over this year. We hope to do even greater things in Jesus name in 2023 and we are so thankful that our Heavenly Father has blessed us with the wisdom, strength, and provision to keep the work going and growing.
