September at the DaNgow Church

The rainy season has arrived and Savoewn and I are busy keeping the DaNgow Church going and growing. On Sunday September 3rd a young man Toy Lang Huen and his sister Sao Soc JeaTa (pictured above) submitted themselves for baptism upon their profession of faith in Jesus. They both joined in right away in our Tuesday to Friday English School, our Saturday Bible Memory Teen Meeting and in our Sunday Worship. It is a great answer to prayer and a great blessing to receive these new souls as they become old enough to make their personal profession of their faith in Jesus.

I look forward to being with you all in the States during the month of October. I have prepared great Mission's Messages and lots of pictures of the work here that we may mutually encourage one another in the Lord's Service. We thank you all for your faithfulness and we look forward to seeing you soon.
